

Chadick Ellig Joins IIC Partners, Executive Search Worldwide

New York, August 19, 2010 -- Chadick Ellig today announced that it has joined IIC Partners, an affiliation of 53 successful, independently-owned retained executive search firms across 37 countries. Chadick Ellig will remain an independent retained executive search firm, as it has been throughout its 30+ year history. IIC Partners, the world's eighth largest executive search organization, provides Chadick Ellig with a strong global reach and exceptional local focus and knowledge.

"As clients seek to differentiate themselves in the market, they come to us for the creative solutions we provide in accessing top talent and filling their critical needs in a timely manner. Now our global reach with IIC Partners will enhance our capabilities without the 'off limits' issues that large search firms often experience," says Janice Reals Ellig, Co-CEO of Chadick Ellig.

"IIC Partners' members operate at the same high level we do with a customized, consultative approach that ensures our clients get the right talent, for the right positions, at the right time," says Susan L. Chadick, co-CEO. "As a women-owned firm, it is important to be partners with other member firms who have women in leadership roles and clearly embrace diversity as we do."

IIC Partners Chair, Lim Chye said, "IIC Partners attracts such high caliber new members because of its demonstrable global strength combined with clear regional and sector-based expertise."

Chadick Ellig is a premier retained executive search firm based in New York City. For over 30 years, their mission has been to build relationships for the long-term success of their clients.
